- 4.12 Retention of title of goods remains the property of SPS until all goods are paid in full.

5 Delivery

- 5.1 Unless otherwise indicated, the Customer will be responsible for payment of all transport and delivery charges for all purchases from SPS.
- 5.2 Delivery costs are based on order weight, delivery location and freight method selected. Costs can be calculated in the Site.
- 5.3 A single order comprising of delivery to multiple addresses constitutes multiple Orders with freight for each Order applicable.
 - Part shipments, where goods have been listed on a prior Tax Invoice or where a prior arrangement with SPS has been made will be supplied freight free.
- 5.4 SPS will use its discretion in selecting a reputable carrier and appropriate means of shipment. Any dates quoted by SPS for delivery of the Goods/Services are an estimate only and shall not form part of the Sale Terms.
- 5.5 Where Goods/Services are to be delivered by instalments, each instalment shall be deemed to be the subject of a separate agreement and no default or failure by SPS in respect of any one or more instalments shall vitiate the contract in respect of the Goods/Services previously delivered or undelivered Goods/Services. In the event that SPS give notice to you that it is unable to deliver any instalment of the Goods/ Services, you shall be deemed to have accepted those instalments already delivered. SPS shall reimburse the price of the undelivered Goods/Services which have been paid for by you.
- 5.6 Where the Customer fails to take delivery of the Goods/Services or any part of them when they are made available to you, or fail to provide accurate instructions, documents, licenses, consents or authorisation's required to enable the Goods/ Services to be delivered, SPS shall be entitled, upon giving written notice to the Customer, to store or arrange for storage of the Goods/Services, and then risk in the Goods/Services shall pass to the Customer. Delivery shall be deemed to have taken place, and the Customer shall pay to SPS all costs and expenses (including storage and insurance charges) arising from the Customers failure.
- 5.7 SPS shall endeavour to arrange to deliver the Goods/Services to the delivery point as designated by the Customer on the Order. SPS is not responsible for lost, damaged or incorrectly delivered Orders where the Customer has listed incorrect address or delivery details on the Order.
- 5.8 Title and risk of loss or damage to the Goods/Services shall pass to you on the physical delivery of the Order to the address identified in the Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, title to the Goods which are Trademarked shall remain with the applicable licensor(s).
- 5.9 Claims against SPS for compensation are not recognised unless the Order is sent using a tracking number, is registered or insured by SPS.
 - Tracking numbers do not include customs documentation, airway bill numbers, container numbers or express post barcodes.
- 5.10 Any claim for delivery damage must be made in writing to SPS by the Customer within seven (7) days of delivery, unless a signature is required upon delivery in which case the notification must be made within one (1) day, and such notification is confirmed in writing within seven (7) days of its receipt by SPS. Where no such notice has been provided by the Customer the Goods/Services shall be deemed to have been accepted as being in good condition and in accordance with the Sale Terms.
- 5.11 Where the Customer suspected an Order lost, stolen or not delivered, it is the Customers responsibility to confirm the non-delivery of the Order to SPS by way of written notice within fourteen (14) days of notice of dispatch from SPS.
 - Where an Order is insured on dispatch, SPS shall act on the Customers behalf to recover the order and any associated costs to replace the original Order within a reasonable time frame. SPS at its decision may ship a replacement Order prior to the original Order being located.
 - Where no form of insurance was paid by the Customer, the Customer acknowledges that whilst SPS will assist with all documentation to make claim, it is the customers responsibility to show evident in writing a missing or delayed delivery has occurred by means of official documentation, online tracking detailing non-delivery or substantiated 3rd party evidence.
- 5.12 All Export orders are subject to Incoterms 2020 'EXW' Ex-Works (Port of Sydney).

- 5.13 Transit Damage to any Order made by the Customer containing fragile, glass, liquids or perishable Goods, including but not limited to machines, inks and spare parts, must notify SPS within one (1) days of delivery and such notification is confirmed in writing within seven (7) days of its receipt by SPS, the Goods/Services shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Customer as being in good condition and in accordance with the Sale Terms.
 - Where section 5.10 applies to an Order, the Customer shall be notified by means of written notice or sticker attached to the SPS documentation (Invoice or Packing Slip).
 - The Customer agrees any attempt to remove such notice from the documentation will void all claims and warranties against SPS for all Goods/Services in the Order.
- 5.14 In no event shall SPS be liable to the Customer for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages resulting from performance or failure to perform under an agreement pursuant to the Sale Terms, or from the furnishing, performance or use of any Goods or Services sold or provided pursuant to the Sale Terms, or due to late delivery or non-delivery of the Goods/Services, whether due to a breach of contract, breach of warranty, negligence, or otherwise.
